Naples, July 4, N. S.

THE Perſon who lately arrived here from Tripoly, after having concluded and ſigned a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between the Subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies and thoſe of that Regency, ſet out from hence on the 20th paſt for Rome on his Return to Tripoly, the Expences of his Journey being defrayed by this Court as far as Fondi the Confines of the Eccleſiaſtical State. On the 21ſt Six Braſs Cannon for Battery were caſt here for the King's Service, and are placed in the Arſenal. On the 24th the Baggage of the Duke di Caſtropignano, our late Ambaſſador at the Court of France, was landed here by a French Veſſel from Marſeilles. On the 28th Cardinal Coſcia, who lately came hither from Rome, had a private Audience of their Majeſties. On the 29th ſeventy Men, who for various Crimes had lately been condemned to work for a certain Time on the Fortifications of the Fortreſſes of this Kingdom, were brought hither from Capua, and being joined here by Twenty more under the like Condemnation, they were put on board the Gallies on the 2d Inſtant, in order to be diſtributed in the garriſon'd Places on the Borders of Tuſcany. On the 2d M. de la Vieuville, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador to the King of Sardinia, took Leave of the King and Queen, and embarked on board the Gallies for Genoa, in his Way to Turin.

Rome, July 8, N. S. A few Days ago the Duke di Caſtropignano, late Ambaſſador from the King of the Two Sicilies at the French Court, ſet out from hence with his Lady on his Return to Naples.

Leghorn, July 14, N. S. On the 3d Inſtant the Great Duke's Gallies came in from Porto Ferraio, whence they brought ſeveral Pieces of Braſs Cannon. On the 7th came into this Port his Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Durſley and Mahon, the former from Cruizing; and the latter from Lisbon, which the ſame Day ſailed again. On the 11th a Neapolitan Ship arrived at this Port in ſeven Days from Naples, and brought Advice, that two Neapolitan Gallies had convoyed to Port Ercole ſix Tranſports, four of them with Cavalry, and two with Recruits of Foot, for the Garriſons on the Borders of Tuſcany. The ſaid Gallies, which have on board the Ambaſſador of the King of Naples to the Court of Turin, were obliged by contrary Wind to anchor at Port Ferraio, on their Voyage to Genoa.

Florence, July 16, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant the French Ambaſſador M. de St. Aignan having ſpent ſome Days in viewing the Curioſities of this City, and made ſeveral Viſits to the Electreſs Dowager Palatine's Court, ſet out for Lucca, whence he returned hither on the 8th, and on the 10th departed for Loretto. Fifteen hundred Carbines are making here by Direction of the Government, for a new Regiment of Horſe which is forming out of the Militia, of which the Marqueſs del Monti is appointed Colonel.

War-Office, Auguſt 1, 1741.

Whereas many private Soldiers have deſerted from the ſeveral Regiments herein undermentioned, now encamped near Colcheſter, and may be afraid to return to the reſpective Regiments to which they now belong, for Fear of being puniſhed for the ſaid Deſertion, or for formerly deſerting from other Corps: Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices are pleaſed hereby to grant a Pardon to all ſuch private Soldiers as ſhall return to the Regiments to which they now belong at the Camp near Colcheſter, on or before the 20th Inſtant; and are likewiſe pleaſed to declare, that ſuch private Soldiers who ſhall return as aforeſaid, ſhall continue in the ſame Regiments they now are, without being moleſted or claimed by the Officers of the reſpective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

By their Excellencies Command,
Wm. Yonge.

Regiments of Foot commanded by Major-General Howard.
Brigadier-General Cornwallis, late General Whetham.
Colonel Pulteney.
Colonel Peers.
Colonel John Campbell.
Colonel William Handaſyd.
